

THE NATAL OLD MAIN LINE FROM DURBAN TO PIETERMARITZBURG

EDITED BY
BRUNO MARTIN AND MICHAEL COTTRELL

This carefully researched, fascinating book provides much information about the Old Main Line between Durban to Pietermaritzburg which opened in 1880. Chapters include the first railway in South Africa; the development of the railway and locomotives; construction and later reconstruction under the Natal Government Railways and South African Railways; Umgeni Steam Railway; famous trains and people and reminiscences. The book has 216 pages, including about 34 maps, 140 illustrations and sketches and a pull-out map at the back.

The book should be available in November at a cost R150 post-paid within S Africa.
