Dear Members and Friends

I hope this finds you well and coping with lockdown.

As it is the second Tuesday of the month, I have attached a "talk" which you may find interesting and it was chosen because today marks the 200th anniversary of the birth of Florence Nightingale.

It is an edited version of an article by Joshua Hammer and was written for the Smithsonian Magazine (March 2020). The full article can be read on the internet.

In June we hope to send you a paper on the 1820 settlers. Under normal circumstances SANS would have marked the 200th anniversary of their landing.

While we are on lockdown, I encourage you to keep abreast of SANS posts on our Face Book page - your contributions would be very welcome. Join the Group at <https://www.facebook.com/groups/SANSp/>

Also remember to visit our Web Page at www.sanationalsociety.co.za

Let's hope it will not be too long before we can meet as a society but until it is safe to do so all SANS meetings and activities are on hold.

Best wishes

Sincerely

Angela St George
